The house from which the woman came and where the cabman said he had been paid 35 for driving the party out into Chesterfield was visited by Captain Tomlinson, and all hands were arrested. The woman who owns the house, Molly White, and all the other women in the house were arrested. The women were halled, but Molly White was refused bail, and she was locked up for a hearing this morning.

In the meantime Officer Mel Folkes went to Manchester and brough Crosley over to the First Station. He could not give a coherent account of himself, but a Times-Dispatch man learned from him that he came to town yesterday morning to "vote for his friend Frazier" in the county. After yoling he started out to see the sights, and got a little "drinky." Then he remembered no more.

Crasley said he worked on the roads for Mr. Hil Carter, and that he had saved up his 250 for a rainy day.

The woman who got out of the carreige with Crosley has not been seen since. Molly White says she knows nothing about it, except that a man and a woman in a carriage came to her house yesterday afternoon about 5 o'clock and then drove away.

NEGROES GIVEN LITTLE TIME TO CLEAR OUT

CHICAGO, ILL., Nov. 3.—Excitement prevails to-day among the colored citizens of Morgan Park, as the result of the posting of placards throughput the town giving notice to all corored persons that they will be allowed forty-eight hours in which to leave the place. Several families have already left, taking with them whatever goods they could conveniently carry, and it is expected that others will follow their example. The order to leave is the outcome of the murder of Chief-of-Police Airey, Saturday night, by Mack Wiley, who with several other of his colored friends, was out on a Hallowe'en froile.

> Thousands of Dollars' Worth to be Distributed by Senators and Representatives.

Believed that Board of Visitors Says Booker T. Washington Will Elect at Meeting on November 10th.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 8, 1003. There were few Virginians in Washngton to-day, their absence being accounted for probably by the fact of their being at the polls at home. Mr. J. N. Brennaman was here a few hours home in New Market, whither he went an expression regarding his chances of election to the office of Register of the Land Office, to succeed Mr. Richardson Mr. Brenaman declared his candidacy "I am as well satisfied as a man could be at this distance from the election," said Mr. Brenaman. "I am not making any extravagant claims, but so far as I am concerned the outlook is excellent. Am concerned the outlook is excellent."

He appeared to mean what he said.
He has probably as wide acquaintance with public men as any man in Virginia, and his long service as a clerk of the House of Dolegates, of the Constitutional Convention, and of the Revision Committee, has made him many friends among the law-makers.

SEED DISTRIBUTION.

The distribution of seeds by the Department of Agriculture began to-day. The Department will send out this year no less than one thousand tons of vegetable and flower seeds, valued at $275,000. Each Congressman and Senator will be entitied to 12,000 packages. Such a jiarga quantity of seeds has nover been distributed by the Department before. The question arises, Do the farmers want the seeds? Congressmen receive more requests for them than they can grant, but whether $275,000 worth of good is done the agricultural interests by the free distribution is a matter of some doubt.

ARRANGING FOR HOMES.

Virginia Congressmen and Senators re arranging for homes here this winter, are arranging for homes here this winter. Representatives Jones and Rixey have already taken residences.
